

Fire Protection EIT

Rec #17-0009

About Us:

CEMS Engineering Inc. is a 28 year old small business which provides multidisciplinary A/E services including Architecture, Civil, Electrical, Mechanical, Structural and Fire Protection engineering.

Position:

Fire Protection Engineer EIT

Job Location:

This position is located in our Summerville, SC office which is 20 minutes from downtown Charleston.

Minimum Qualifications:

The position requires a Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Fire Protection Engineering, Fundamentals of Engineering (EIT) or Professional Engineer (PE) registration, a minimum of one (1) year of fire suppression and fire alarm system design experience, and the ability to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the Life Safety Code (NFPA 101) and the International Building Code (IBC). Must have AutoCAD experience.

Candidates with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering or related field with EIT or PE registration demonstrating a minimum of three (3) years of Fire Protection Engineering experience will also be considered

Desired experience:

DoD Experience is considered a plus. Experience in Revit MEP is also a plus.

How to apply:

Contact CEMS to apply for this job.

CEMS Engineering, Inc. is an equal employment opportunity employer and adheres to a policy of making employment decisions without regard to race, color, age, sex, religion, national origin, disability or status as a disabled or Vietnam – era veteran.

